

LEGEND

- 1 Dune scrub/banksia woodland
- 2 Upgraded picnic area
- 3 Irrigated grass play area
- 4 Existing Norfolk Island Pines
- 5 New post & pipe fence
- 6 New picnic shelters
- 7 Group swings area
- 8 Existing windswept She Oaks
- 9 Double flying fox
- 10 Protected dune scrub
- 11 "Beacon nursery" - inclusive play
- 12 Embankment slides
- 13 Bay lookout & sitting area
- 14 Upgraded beacon platform with toposcope
- 15 New path link to public toilets
- 16 Glenhuntly heritage marker
- 17 Bay Trail path connection
- 18 New path links from Point Ormond Rd
- 19 Possible new pedestrian crossing
- 20 Relocated aboriginal heritage marker
- 21 New path & wayfinding signage
- 22 New granitic path access to Glenhuntly Rd
- 23 Existing pedestrian access to shoreline

LEGEND

- 1 Shelter with long picnic table
- 2 Electric BBQs
- 3 Existing indigenous vegetation to be retained
- 4 Existing windswept Allocasuarina to be retained
- 5 Proposed picnic settings
- 6 Seating platforms around play space
- 7 Carousel
- 8 Gyro birdnest swing
- 9 Walkway with inclusive play
- 10 In-ground Trampolines
- 11 Drinking fountain
- 12 Agility rope play
- 13 Sitting area
- 14 Circuit path
- 15 Irrigated undulating lawn areas
- 16 Double flying fox
- 17 Stainless steel embankment slides
- 18 Bay lookout with seating
- 19 Pink mudstone steppers in banksia forest
- 20 Broad steps to lookout
- 21 Path link to beacon hill
- 22 Path link to Bay Trail
- 23 Existing Norfolk Island Pines in mulched beds
- 24 Path link to Point Ormond Road & car parking
- 25 Possible new pedestrian crossing
- 26 Proposed path link to Glenhuntly Road

MATERIALS & SURFACES

- Warm grey coloured concrete with rock salt finish
- Sandstone toppings
- Mulch softfall
- Irrigated turf
- Low indigenous plants in mulched garden beds
- Softfall rubber
- Existing trees
- Robust timber & steel furniture

